

Find What You're Looking For

Olivia O'Brien

I always knew you'd be the one
To break me down, no, it's not fun
To be the girl you hit and run
Wish you would sorry for the things you've done
And after all you put me through
I'm sick and tired of loving you more
I just can't give you what you're looking for I hope you find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Did he gave you what you want?
Gave you what you need?
You beg me "please, baby, baby, don't leave"
I hope you find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
They say you don't know what you got
'Til it's too late, I'm already gone
I don't care that you're not here
Won't wipe my eyes, cause there's no tears
I'm not what you wanted, I'm not what you need
Just not what you wanted and that's fine with me
I don't why I kept so much
I'm doing fine without your love I hope you find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Did he gave you what you want?
Gave you what you need?
You beg me "please, baby, baby, don't leave"
I hope you find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
I always knew that you were not about me
Always doing things I like without me
Tryna front you, say you're just a bad boy
But I know you, you're nothing but a sad boy
You lie to me, you tell me that you love me
Saying that you put no one above me
But I'm not done, I know just what you wanted

I never should've stayed, just
I hope you find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Did he gave you what you want?
Gave you what you need?
You beg me "please, baby, baby, don't leave"
I hope you find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
Find what you're looking for
What you're looking for
