

Rapunzel

Emilie Autumn

In the court yard
use to sing as loud as she could locked away here
she's been quite lovely and good but no one listens now she's lost her voice
she had no choice if you sing loud and clear someone passing by
will surely hear you
no you can't be afraid
if you ever want
somebody hear you
if you sing loud and clear
someone passing by
will surely hear you
no you can't be afraid
tour the curtain
put her hand outside
of the frame
let her hair down
sang all day
and nobody came
but when the sun went down the stars came out
she heard them shout if you sing loud and clear
someone passing by
if you ever want
somebody hear you
someone passing by
will surely hear you
if you ever want
somebody hear you

no you can't be afraid
