

Embrace

Korn

Blood is boring
Sleep is boring
Don't stop running
I'm here counting The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate
The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate
The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate
Will he keep fuckin' with me? There's no where else to go So I walk but seem to crawl
For I'm giving in today
Now I run into a wall
'Cause I cannot fight my way
You've gotta come with me
(I cannot stand this place)
We're falling off the world
(And I'll give in this way)
We had a chance to run
(And now I can't believe)
We're going all the way
(And all the affairs embrace) My life, worry
Life is story
Give up beating
I'll start needing The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate
The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate
The life, the hurt, the pain, the hate
Will he keep fuckin' with me? There's no where else to go
So I walk but seem to crawl
For I'm giving in today
Now I run into a wall
'Cause I cannot fight my way You've gotta come with me
(I cannot stand this place)
We're falling off the world
(And I'll give in this way)
We had a chance to run
(And now I can't believe)
We're going all the way
(And all the affairs embrace) What really do I have to follow?
Nothing makes sense at all
Taking something for nothing
Watch me as I fall I'm bringing me down
I'm bringing me down
I'm bringing me down
I'm bringing me down You've gotta come with me
(I cannot stand this place)

We're falling off the world
(And I'll give in this way)
We had a chance to run
(And now I can't believe)
We're going all the way
(And all the affairs embrace) You've gotta come with me
(I cannot stand this place)
We're falling off the world
(And I'll give in this way)
We had a chance to run
(And now I can't believe)
We're going all the way
(And all the affairs embrace)
