Just Another Day

Lady Gaga

Yeah, man Play that New York drum, Homer Show 'em how we do it DowntownJust another way to prove I love you, when it's hard today I'll lay back in my chair and find a way And when you say that thing that you say That makes me mad, I'll turn away I'll turn away, I'll turn awayAnd think of different ways to keep my spirits up And choreograph hours with playful joyish thoughts We both know I could learn a thing or two About relaxing, hey, I love you And after all, it's just another dayOh, I could use some two or three Or other kind of ways to be But today I won't be so hard on me I'll walk alone down a different street And smile at all the new strange I meetAnd pick up unique style I'll kick around today And create simple thoughts I'll laugh in humble waysWe both know I could learn a thing or two About behaving, but I love you And after all, it's just another dayCome on, Mark! Ladies and gentlemen, Brian Newman We both know I could learn a thing or two About behaving, but I love you And after all, it's just another dayAnd after all, it's just another day Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/