

Nosebleed (feat. R.A. The Rugged Man)

Vinnie Paz

[Verse 1: R.A. The Rugged Man]

Ruin your idol, I'm glued to the Bible and my rifle, losing your title
Instead of shooting you're suing for libel
Everybody hate me cause I stay true to the facts
The Ku Klux Klan hate me more than Jews and blacks
Yeah, you over for certain, you can pray to whoever
Jehovah, Buddha, Allah, Jesus, Mother Mary the Virgin
Is it the violence that the TV taught us?
I grew up worshipping Charles Bronson, John Rambo, and Chuck Norris
Pazienza the Pazmanian Damien rapping the pain he's in Cracking your cranium, I'm macking mahogany into Palladium
I'm Bruce Leroy, you Eddie Arkadian
I got the gat and the black
And the Arabian, waterboarding like Dick Cheney
And your back at the first day of my birth
The moment I was born I was condemned by the Catholic Church
Warsaw battling the streets we inhabited
I'm sugar like Ray Robinson, you ain't even saccharine
Leaving you staggering making an impact
New York, we created this rap
This a blatant attack, East Coast we taking it back, come on
Life is love, death, pain, pain
Nothing in life, ain't nothing gained
Life is love, death, pain, pain
Nothing in life, ain't nothing gained I'm letting these motherfuckers live, it was truly compassion
I'm brutally bashing cause I'm steadily losing my passion
Tell Louie to stab them or to shoot them with two different Magnums
I'm usually packing carry hawks like I'm Julian Jackson
I'll rob em for Gucci, I'm a thief, these are Lucifer's actions
I'm a provider, I'm a messiah, Jesus's assassin
I don't think it's anybody living truly could match them
I slaughter Buddha through the computer, Medusa's companion
A lot of rappers wanna beef with the lion
Ain't too many people that's as fucking lethal as I am
I feast them and fry them, Vinnie so at peace with the violence
I exercise absolute power, peace to the tyrants
I'm old school like quarter waters and eating in silence
You new school like faggot rappers competing for prizes
I'm a send you to the afterlife speak to Osiris
And when he ask you why you there tell him the lethalest virus, yeah
Life is love, death, pain, pain
Nothing in life, ain't nothing gained

Life is love, death, pain, pain
Nothing in life, ain't nothing gained
