

I'll Be Alright

Christopher Cross

Be alright, be alright
Be alright got the will to live I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'm gonna give it
All I've got to give I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'll be alright
I've got the will to live I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'm gonna give it
All I've got to give
What's happening? Yeah me too
Just can't seem to shake those ordinary blues
One thing I can tell you, is hold your spirit tight
Some thing's on the move it's gonna be alright I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'll be alright
I've got the will to live I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'm gonna give it
All I've got to give On the way down to paradise I kept stepping on my wings
The tears, the time, the trouble
I had to take a stand, I found my way to land
I'm gonna be alright
I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'll be alright
I've got the will to live I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'm gonna give it
All I've got to give
He's gonna give it all he's gotta give Sometimes I think I live by miracles alone
Click those ruby slippers and hope to be back home
Say just where I'll find you and that's just where I'll be Building me an igloo by the sea I'll be alright, I'll be alright
I'll be alright
I'm gonna give it
All I've got to give I'm gonna give it
All I've got to give
He's gonna give it all he's gotta give
I'm gonna give it I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion

I'll be alright
I've got the will to live I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'm gonna give it
All I've got to give
He's gonna give it all he's gotta give I'll be alright
I'm a man with his mind in motion
I'll be alright
I've got the will to live
