Country Must Be Country Wide

Brantley Gilbert

Go ahead and crank this on up Mmmhmmm I grew up south of the Mason Dixon Workin' spittin' huntin' and fishin' Stone cold country by the grace of GodI was gasin' up the other day An ol' boy pulled up with a license plate from Ohio I thought oh good Lord he's lost From his wranglers to his boots He reminded me of Chris LeDoux And that Copenhagen smileCountry must be country wide In every state There's a station Playin' Cash, Hank, Willie, and Waylon In foreign cars and four wheel drives There's cowboys and hillbillies From farm towns to big cities There ain't no doubt in my mind Country must be country wideAnd it ain't where, it's how you live We weren't raised to take, we were raised to give The shirt off our back, to anyone in needWe bow our heads before we eat Before we start our day Before we fall asleep 'Cause in God we trust and we believe Yeah we see what's wrong And we know what's rightAnd ol' Hank he said it all When he said country folks can survive In every state There's a station Playin' Cash, Hank, Willie, and Waylon In foreign cars and four wheel drives There's cowboys and hillbillies From farm towns to big cities There ain't no doubt in my mind Country must be country wide (yeah)(Get on it ya'll)In every state There's a station C'mon Y'all better crank this up In every state There's a station Playin' Cash, Hank, Willie, and Waylon In foreign cars and four wheel drives There's cowboys and hillbillies From farm towns to big cities There ain't no doubt in my mind (doubt in my mind) Naw, there ain't no doubt in my mind
