

Never Will Be Mine (feat. Robyn)

Rye Rye

So I was sitting outside one day
Waiting for the dude to come down my way
Praying, wishing, hoping, thinking
And I felt my emotions sinking I've been waiting for the phone to ring
I check constantly but it was all a dream
I never thought you could be so mean
Tired of the waiting, so it's time to come clean And why do boys have to be so shady?
First it's all good and he's glad you his lady
Baby this, baby that
See another chicks and he act like that But the thing with me, I can't take it
Kept it 100, was real, now face it
You gonna eat your words and I'ma make you happen
So be ready for the action, uh
'Cause you never were
And you never will be mine
That's right, that's right, that's right
That's right, that's right, that's right No, you never were
And you never will be mine
That's right, that's right, that's right
That's right, that's right, that's right There's a moment to seize every time that we meet
But you always keep passing me by
No, you never were and you never will be mine Yo, yo, yo
If you having problems with the one you love so much
And you wanna feel his touch
Put your hands in the air, let them know that you truly care
You don't wanna do the fight, fuss
Getting sick of the love pain
All the lies and the trust games
Guessing, age don't make a difference
And I'm getting fed up, so listen, love First you told me that you loved me dearly
I don't love you, did I make that clearly?
And you're thinking you can play my game
When I'm gonna think twice to retain my claim And I'm kinda mad at myself
'Cause I let you get the best of me then confess to me
Her, homeboy, I'm through
Tell that chick that she better get at you, uh 'Cause you never were
And you never will be mine
That's right, that's right, that's right
That's right, that's right, that's right No, you never were
And you never will be mine
That's right, that's right, that's right
That's right, that's right, that's right There's a moment to seize every time that we meet

But you always keep passing me by
No, you never were and you never will be mine Question, what happened to forever?
Me and you always together
Too bad I was too much clever
Can't be played a fool, that's never Suppose she made you happy or whatever
Learn from the past, proceed, get better
Good girl gone mad
'Cause you didn't realize just what you had, uh 'Cause you never were
And you never will be mine
That's right, that's right, that's right
That's right, that's right, that's right No, you never were
And you never will be mine, no, no
That's right, that's right, that's right
That's right, that's right, that's right 'Cause you never were
And you never will be mine
That's right, that's right, that's right
That's right, that's right, that's right No, you never were
And you never will be mine There's a moment to seize every time that we meet
But you always keep passing me by
No, you never were and you never will be mine
