

Commas & Zeros

Deez Nuts

How many ways can you tell the same tired story?
Aren't you forever [?] something?
Only to [?] but I've never felt nothing
When you put your pen to paper
If you sign that check, are you still inspired?
Looks like you've all been cheating on the same sheet
[?] mediocrity We need some inspiration
[?] on your heart's rotation
We need some inspiration
Not another hit for the radio station
We need some inspiration
[?] on your heart's rotation
We need some inspiration
Not a fucking hit for your bullshit station
Kid, got the same bills as the next
Well my future days are dollars while management cash checks
Guess [?] your boys are skipping classes
[?] beat the masses
It's a damn shame, ain't a damn thing
Funny, watch a grown man, turn bitch for the money
It's a damn shame, ain't a damn thing
Funny, watch a grown man, turn bitch for the money How many ways can you tell the same tired story?
Aren't you forever [?] something?
Only to [?] but I've never felt nothing
When you put your pen to paper
If you sign that check, are you still inspired?
Looks like you've all been cheating on the same sheet
[?] mediocrity
They can they can put a price on any man's soul
Just a man [?] commas and the zeros
They can they can put a price on any man's soul
Just a man [?] commas and the zeros How many ways can you tell the same tired story?
Aren't you forever [?] something?
Only to [?] but I've never felt nothing
When you put your pen to paper
If you sign that check, are you still inspired?
Looks like you've all been cheating on the same sheet
[?] mediocrity We need some inspiration
[?] on your heart's rotation
We need some inspiration
Not another hit for the radio station

We need some inspiration
[?] on your heart's rotation
We need some inspiration
Not a fucking hit for your bullshit station
They can they can put a price on any man's soul
They can they can put a price on any man's soul
