

Revolution

The Score

All my wolves begin to howl
Wake me up, the time is now
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming Wide awake
The fever burns
Sweat it out
Bring my turn Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming All this doubt
Is creeping in
Inside out
Shed my skin
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming I
Been waiting all my life
To live when I've only been dreaming
Give love when I've only been stealing Killing time
Keep passing me by
Run down what I've always been chasing
Block out everything I've been facing All my wolves begin to howl
Wake me up, the time is now
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming
Vile things that turn me on
Drag my dark into the dawn
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming
My body aches
I'm bound in chains
But there's a fire
In my veins, yeah Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming Like every king
Who lost the crown
And all those years
Are history now Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming I
Been waiting all my life
Run down what I've always been chasing
Block out everything I've been facing All my wolves begin to howl
Wake me up, the time is now
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming
Vile things that turn me on

Drag my dark into the dawn
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming
There's a revolution coming
There's a revolution coming
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming I'm rising up
Up from the ground
From the bottom
Can't hold me down
Hold me down When I'm rising up
Up from the ground
From the bottom
Can't hold me down
Hold me down
Hold me down All my wolves begin to howl
Wake me up, the time is now
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming
Vile things that turn me on
Drag my dark into the dawn
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming
There's a revolution coming
There's a revolution coming
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming
There's a revolution coming
There's a revolution coming
Can you hear the drumming
There's a revolution coming
