High Hopes

David Gilmour

Beyond the horizon of the place we lived when we were young In a world of magnets and miracles

Our thoughts strayed constantly and without boundary

The ringing of the division bell had begunAlong the Long Road and on down the Causeway Do they still meet there by the CutThere was a ragged band that followed our footsteps

Running before time took our dreams away

Leaving the myriad small creatures trying to tie us to the ground

To a life consumed by slow decay

The grass was greener

The light was brighter

With friends surrounded

The nights of wonderLooking beyond the embers of bridges glowing behind us

To a glimpse of how green it was on the other side

Steps taken forwards but sleepwalking back again

Dragged by force of some inner tideAt a higher altitude with flag unfurled

We reached the dizzy heights of that dreamed of worldEncumbered forever by desire and ambition

There's a hunger still unsatisfied

Our weary eyes still stray to the horizon

Though down this road we've been so many times

The grass was greener

The light was brighter

The taste was sweeter

The nights of wonder

With friends surrounded

The dawn mist growing

The water flowing

The endless riverForever and ever
