

Confusion

Electric Light Orchestra

Everywhere the sun is shining
All around the world it's shining
The cold winds blow across your mind
Confusion, it's such a terrible shame
Confusion, you don't know what you're sayin'
You've lost your love and you just can't carry on
You feel there's no-one there for you to lean on Dark is the road you wander
And as you stand there under
The starry sky, you feel sad inside
Confusion, I don't know what I should do
Confusion, I leave it all up to you
You've lost your love and you just can't carry on
You feel there's no-one there for you to lean on, to lean on
Confusion, confusion
Confusion, confusion
