Far East Movement & Marshmello

Freal luv

Freal luv

Freal luv

Freal luvKnow no limits to feel the truth

When the world stops spinning

I'll know it's you

Searching all night, like a spotlight

For the one to show

Could it be you? Could it be me?

Only way to knowFreal luvI'm all yours, when you really wanna take me there

Don't let me go nowhere

I'd give it all up for you, I swear

Only for real love

That love that keeps me shaking

So real, there's no mistaking

I'd give it all up for you, I swear

Only for real loveLovin that real love, something you feel love

Turning me back to the old me

Ride for my realla, I die for my realla

I give you respect like the OGs

Lockin' me down like the police

We ain't never be lonely

Protectin' my love like a goalie

You'll be the only one next to me right with the homies

We got that empire mind

Combine n' steadily rise (that be freal)

Moment of truth of has arrived

Trust that forever you ride (that be freal)

You be the bank on my side You supervise, let's make a deal

Let's get it sealed, let's make it trill

Let's rule the world, together freal
