

Did You (feat. Chris Brown)

4B

It's written on your skin and his cologne
You're way too close to be just friends
Y'all holdin' hands, y'all makin' plans
Y'all plottin'
You disappear for days, you just go ghost
Where the hell do you go?
Are you in bed with him instead?
We're tryna mend this Please let it out
Let that brutal honesty spill out your mouth
I already know what this is all about
I just need you to tell me the truth
Did you let somebody hold on to you?
The way I would? The way I would?
Did you let—Ow
Did you let somebody hold on?
Did you let somebody hold on to you? Your eyes say words your lips would never say
Like it's far too late
So don't bother tryin', I'm off your mind
I knew from time So let it out
Let that brutal honesty spill out your mouth
I already know what this is all about
I just need you to tell me the truth
Did you let somebody hold on to you? (Please, girl, not the way)
The way I would (No, oh), the way I would
Did you let somebody hold on to you
The way I would? The way I would?
Did you let—Did you let—
Did you let somebody hold on?
Did you let somebody hold on to you?
