

Waiting Here (feat. Jake Isaac)

The Avener

Here she comes home again
where she cry, tear stain
Took her hands, coldness
Held her close, reaping White hill snow, all around
She don't care, cause she's safe now These songs were meant for you
And this shoulder's meant to carry you
When you call my name, come running
'til then I'll be waiting,
I'll be waiting
Here
Waiting here
Waiting here
Waiting here
Moments pass, she pulls away then the moment stop, my heart faint
She looks up and we're eye to eye
She whispers "love you" and leave my side These songs were meant for you
And this shoulder's meant to carry you
When you call my name, come running
'til then I'll be waiting,
I'll be waiting
Here
Waiting here
Waiting here
Waiting here
These songs were meant for you
And this shoulder's meant to carry you
When you call my name, come running
'til then I'll be waiting,
I'll be waiting
Here
Waiting here
Darling
Waiting here
