

Ready for the Weekend (Don Diablo Remix)

R3HAB

Hold on, long week never ending
It's never ending
I keep looking for the light at the end of the road, yeah I've been working overtime
And now the weekend's on my mind
So if you're hearing me tonight
Then let me see you put 'em high If you're ready for the weekend
You gotta let yourself go
If you're ready for the weekend, yeah
I'll take you places you don't know
Everybody can you hear me?
You've gotta let your heart decide
If you're ready for the weekend, yeah
Then let me see your hands up high
Ready for the weekend
Let me see you put 'em high Day in, day out, it's relentless
Can be relentless
Nobody's gonna help you to work it out, no So when this life can wear you down
Get yourself up off the ground
'Cause tonight we're going out
Come on everybody now
If you're ready for the weekend
You gotta let yourself go
If you're ready for the weekend, yeah
I'll take you places you don't know
Everybody can you hear me?
You've gotta let your heart decide
If you're ready for the weekend, yeah
Then let me see your hands up high Ready for the weekend
Let me see you put 'em high
