

More Than a Band

Bridgit Mendler, Naomi Scott, Hayley Kiyoko, Blake Michael & Adam Hicks

I can't pretend to know how you feel
But know that I'm here know that I'm real
Say what you want or don't talk at all
Not gonna let you fall Reach for my hand cause it's held out for you
My shoulders are small but you can cry on 'em too
Everything changes but one thing is true
Understand, we'll always be more than a band(yeah)
You used to brave the world that all on your own
Now we won't let you go we're going along
Be who you wanna be always stand tall
Not gonna let you fall Reach for my hand cause it's held out for you
My shoulders are strong but you can cry on them too
Everything changes but one thing is true
Understand, we'll always be more than a band I never knew you could take me so far
I've always wanted the home that you are The ones I need
Reach for my hand cause it's held out for you
My shoulders are strong but you can cry on 'em too
Everything changes but one thing is true
Understand, we'll always be more than a band
Reach for my hand cause it's held out for you
My shoulders are strong but you can cry on them too
Everything changes but one thing is true
Understand, we'll always be more than a band
