

Reach

Eyes Set to Kill

Hush don't speak a word about the dreams that i live for it hurts to reach you when i'm down dont speak again, i'm still waiting for my turn it hurts to reach you when i'm downmy dreams are growing into frustrations when i hear your voice (feeding me til i'm choking) my ears are ringing louder repeating words that bring me down (ringing, my ears are bleeding) so hold your breath and spare me the pointless conversation, im running out of patience don't blame me for trying to reachhush don't speak a word about the dreams that i live for
dont speak again, i'm still waiting for my turn it hurts to reach you when i'm downas you are moving forward i feel as if i can't catch up (trying so hard to reach you) i'm stuck here at the bottom you're too high up to come back down (trying so hard to reach you)so hold your breath and spare me
the pointless conversation, im running out of patience don't blame me for trying to reach
dont speak again, i'm still waiting for my turn
silence your harsh words my dear my ears are ringing of this I can't stop thinking of it (i try to reach you but i fall) hush don't speak a word about the dreams that i live for
dont speak again, i'm still waiting for my turn
it hurts to reach you when i'm down
