Born To Run (feat. Tyler Glenn)

Afrojack

I'm in way over my head Can't the find sunset over me The mirror in front of my bed Sees the one I said I'd never be Try to escape from the storms Spinning over like a hurricane Can't get away in the dark 'Cause I don't wanna leave without you now Only Gravity can hold us down, Just hold on to faith when we're still young We were born to run! 'Cause I don't wanna leave without you now Only Gravity can hold us down, Just hold on to faith when we're still young We were born to run! The stolen innocence weights on my shoulders It's heavy now These broken nights we spend They shine through the cracks till they way out Try to escape from the storms Spinning over like a hurricane Can't get away in the dark 'Cause I don't wanna leave without you now Only Gravity can hold us down Just hold on to faith when we're still young We were born to run! 'Cause I don't wanna leave without you now Only Gravity can hold us down Just hold on to faith when we're still young We were born to run! 'Cause I don't wanna leave without you now Only Gravity can hold us down, Just hold on to faith when we're still young We were born to run! 'Cause I don't wanna leave without you now Only Gravity can hold us down Just hold on to faith when we're still young We were born to run!

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.