

Second Look

The Soft Pack

When all the girl and the new went on to more
They had a brand that worked, you were sure
Then take a second look at what you've got
And your heart pressed to say you stand out from the lot Oh no no oh oh
Don't give it back to me
I'm sorry but I've seen that one before
Oh no no oh oh
It changed trajectory
I hate to see you watching on my shoulder When you found yourself through the shortage home
And you find yourself in hands grown big and tall
But you find your mind, you can't expand no more
Yea you find you mind and you cannot handle more
Oh no no oh oh
Don't give it back to me
I'm sorry but I've seen that one before
Oh no no oh oh
It changed trajectory
I hate to see you watching on my shoulder
