Second Look

The Soft Pack

When all the girl and the new went on to more They had a brand that worked, you were sure Then take a second look at what you've got And your heart pressed to say you stand out from the lotOh no no oh oh Don't give it back to me I'm sorry but I've seen that one before Oh no no oh oh It changed trajectory I hate to see you watching on my shoulderWhen you found yourself through the shortage home And you find yourself in hands grown big and tall But you find your mind, you can't expand no more Yea you find you mind and you cannot handle more Oh no no oh oh Don't give it back to me I'm sorry but I've seen that one before Oh no no oh oh It changed trajectory I hate to see you watching on my shoulder
