

Gypsy

Dio

Yeah, toucheShe was straight from hell
But you never could tell
That you were blinded by her light
She could crack your brain
With magic pain
And turn a paler shade of whiteWell I was on the free
Just me and me
And just about to sail
When I heard the voice
Said you got a choice
The hammer or the nail
You'll be riding
You'll be riding on the Gypsy
On the GypsyWell I rolled the bones
To see who'd own
My mind and what's within
And it's a given rule
That we're all fools
And need to have a little sinSo I'm riding
I've been riding on the Gypsy
On the Gypsy QueenWell she was straight from hell
But you never could tell
That you were blinded by the light
So she cracked my brain
With a magic pain
And turned my left around to right, right
So I'm riding
I'm still riding
Yes I'm riding on, on the Gypsy
On the Gypsy Queen
She's mean
riding on the Gypsy
Yeah, yeah, yeah, on the Queen
