Turned to Real Life

Shiny Toy Guns

Eyes are magic, see right through me Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy Turned to real life, stars in the morning Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy Turned to real lifeNow I'm glowing like a sunset In the window of my dreams That turned to real life I'll never forget when For the first time A girl in a fantasy Turned to real life Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy Turned to real life I'm a believer for the first time I can be beautiful A girl in a fantasy Turned to real lifeYour fingers running over my body Makes me feel like a silver angel Under the moonlight, right beside me Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy Turned to real lifeMakes me feel like a girl in a fantasy Turned to real life I'm a believer for the first time I can be beautiful A girl in a fantasy turned to real life Makes me feel like a girl in a fantasy Turned to real life I'm a believer for the first time I can be beautiful A girl in a fantasy turned to real lifeMakes me feel like a girl in a fantasy Turned to real life I'm a believer for the first time I can be beautiful A girl in a fantasy turned to real life Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
