

Hunger + Thirst (feat. Henry Seeley)

The Belonging Co

I have been here before
But I know that there is more of You to find
I have seen heaven fall Still my heart it longs to see You one more time So once again I invite
You in
Once again I am reaching out You're all I'm after, all that I pursue
I hunger and thirst for you, hunger and thirst for you
My sole desire, no one else will do
I hunger and thirst for you, hunger and thirst for you There are prayers I have prayed
Still echoing even in the wait
But the hope I embrace
Is that You are good and You will make a way
So once again I invite You in
Once again I am reaching out You're all I'm after, all that I pursue
I hunger and thirst for you, hunger and thirst for you
My sole desire, no one else will do
I hunger and thirst for you, hunger and thirst for you All that I'm needing, all that I'm seeking
All that I want is all that You are
My one devotion, is You and You only
All that I want, is all that You are All that I'm needing, all that I'm seeking
All that I want is all that You are
My one devotion, is You and You only
All that I want, is all that You are You're all I'm after, all that I pursue
I hunger and thirst for you, hunger and thirst for you
My sole desire, no one else will do
I hunger and thirst for you, hunger and thirst for you
You're all I'm after, all that I pursue
I hunger and thirst for you, hunger and thirst for you
My sole desire, no one else will do
I hunger and thirst for you, hunger and thirst for you Jesus, oh Jesus
Only You can set my heart on fire Jesus, oh Jesus
Only You can set my heart on fire Jesus, oh Jesus
Only You can set my heart on fire Jesus, oh Jesus
Only You can set my heart on fire All that I'm needing, all that I'm seeking
All that I want is all that You are
My one devotion, is You and You only
All that I want, is all that You are All that I'm needing, all that I'm seeking
All that I want is all that You are
My one devotion, is You and You only
All that I want, is all that You are
