

Heartbreak World

Matt Nathanson

Let's all pack up, move this year
We'll slip the lines and disappear
Leave memories for auctioneers
And those just standing still They'll miss the taste of wanting you
Call out your name like I still do
They haven't said a word that's true
And they only hold you down In this heartbreak world of just imagine
The tired talk of better days
In this heartbreak world where nothing matters
C'mon let's make this dream
That's barely half awake come true
Let's move out of Los Angeles
And just drive until this summer gives
And forget the lives we used to live
? Cause we're gone In this heartbreak world of just imagine
Of it's tired talk of better days
In this heartbreak world where nothing matters
C'mon let's make this dream
That's barely half awake come true In this heartbreak world of just imagine
Of it's tired talk of better days
In this heartbreak world where nothing matters
C'mon let's make this dream
That's barely half awake come true
In this heartbreak world, its tired talk
In this heartbreak world where nothing matters
C'mon let's make this dream
That's barely half awake
C'mon let's make this dream
That's barely half awake come true
