                             What's up ya'll?
                                 (Hmm)
                                 (Oww)
                         It's Left Eye on the track
                                 (Hmm)
                                 (Oww)
                      My girl T-Boz over to my left
                                 (Hmm)
                                 (Oww)
                           Chilli is on my right
                                 (Hmm)
                                 (Yeah)
                     We're gonna teach ya'll to shout
                                 (Hmm)
                                 (Unhh)
                                 (Hmm)
                               Check it out
                              (Oww, yeah)
                                 (Hmm)
                               What's up?
                                 (Hmm)
                               What's up?
                                  Shout
                                  (Ooh)
                    Same damn time every hurt or two
              Something can happen to put me in your mood
                    Keep it inside till I turn dark blue
                   Trash everything I ever gave to you
                Brought it on the front of your lexus coupe
               Didn't want to leave you with a lame excuse
                     Sex so good turns love to abuse
When you wanna leave love's got you in a nooseIt's not just when I'm in bed
                       Sometimes I'm so frustrated
                          I keep it all in my head
                      Till I just can't take it no more
                       It's not just when I get mad
                      Sometimes it's 'cuz I'm so glad
                        That you are near me now
                          I just have to get it out
                                  Shout
                                 (Hmm)
```

```
You gotta let me get it out
                            (Hmm)
                    You gotta let it go away
                            (Hmm)
                Don't wanna spend another day
                            (Hmm)
                Unless I feel like you make me
                            Shout!
                   You gotta let me get it out
                            (Hmm)
                   The feeling won't go away
                            (Hmm)
                Don't wanna spend another day
                            (Hmm)
                Unless I feel like you make me
             Shout!Found somethin' in your pocket
                    And I don't know why?
             I didn't say nothing' just sat and cried
                  Got me twisted all out inside
                Not too long before the next ride
                 Over and over again
              Instead of lettin' out I always let it in
               This is where the confusion begins
'Cuz if it don't make me you don't winIt's not just when I'm in bed
                  Sometimes it's so frustratin'
                    I keep it all in my head
                 Till I just can't take it no more
                  It's not just when I get mad
                 Sometimes it's 'cuz I'm so glad
                   That you are near me now
                  I just have to get it outShout
                             (Aaa)
                            (Hmm)
                   You gotta let me get it out
                           (Oh yeah)
                            (Hmm)
                    You gotta let it go away
                            (Hmm)
                Don't wanna spend another day
                            (Hmm)
                Unless I feel like you make me
                            Shout!
                            (Shout!)
                   You gotta let me get it out
                             (Aaa)
                            (Hmm)
                   The feeling won't go away
                          (Go away)
                            (Hmm)
```

Don't wanna spend another day (Hmm)

Unless I feel like you make me
ShoutBaby just tell me what you wanna do
I can't help bein' in love with you
'Cuz sometimes I need you to turn me out
'Cuz that's what lovin' is all about
(Shout)

Baby just tell me what you wanna do
I can't help bein' in love with you
'Cuz sometimes I need you to turn me out
'Cuz that's what lovin' is all about

(Yeah)

(Shout)Check it

I knew that it was only time

Before my rhymes

Would dig into my mind

And get crazy out of line

I do my best

To never disrespect

My girls from TLC

All my friends don't let me

Speak my love and peace

It's all about

In this world with a doubt

Is you down for the count

Do your hoes still amount

To the price that we pay

To remain up in this crucial game

Call it a test

A game of chess

Let's play

Me and you one on one

(Hmm)

Breakin the ice

Till the water runs

(Hmm)

Down my face like a chase

Now do you hear the guns

(Hmm)

Here I come and won't quit

Until the job is done

(Hmm)

Quiet storms will inform you

That I've just begun

(Hmm)

Tippin' the spot till it's hot If you want what I got

(Hmm)

See me down to the dot dot com And keep it comin' with your best shot (Hmm)

If you're short I care alot And let's notShout

(Hmm)

You gotta let me get it out (You gotta let me get it out, yeah)

(Hmm)

You gotta let it go away

(Hmm)

Don't wanna spend another day

(Hmm)

Unless I feel like you make me (Feel like you make me shout)

Shout!

You gotta let me get it out

(Yea yea ohh)

(Hmm)

The feeling won't go away

(Hmm)

Don't wanna spend another day

(Hmm)

Unless I feel like you make me

ShoutShout

(Ohh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh)

(Hmm)

You gotta let me get it out

(Hmm)

You gotta let it go away

(Hmm)

Don't wanna spend another day

(Hmm)

Unless I feel like you make me

Shout

(Ohh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh)

You gotta let me get it out

(Hmm)

The feeling won't go away

(Hmm)

Don't wanna spend another day

(Hmm)

Unless I feel like you make me Shout
