

Lost In Your Own Life

Alexa Vega

Don't have to be a wanderer alone
Don't have to be a dog without a bone,
Just come to my house, I'll be home
I can hear you
And how did you end up lost at sea?
You don't have a boat or live near a beach
But if your in need of rescuing
I will hear you
(
I want you to know, your never alone
You'll always have a place to go
That's on the brighter side
I'll color your night
I'll lead you to light
Put hope inside for you to find
You don't have to be lost
Lost in your own... life la la life Don't have to have a heart that's turned to stone
Don't have to be a king without a throne
What does that even mean
Do you even know?
Cause I can hear you()You don't have to live in strife like before
No one uses the word... strife? anymore no no no ohhh
I'll color your night
I'll lead you to light
Put hope inside so you can find
You don't have to be lost
Lost in your own... life La la la la la...
