Treasure

The Cure

She whispers Please remember me When I am gone from here She whispers Please remember me But not with tears... Remember I was always true Remember that I always tried Remember I loved only you Remember me and smile... For it's better to forget Than to remember me And cry Remember I was always true Remember that I always tried Remember I loved only you Remember me and smile... For it's better to forget Than to remember me And cry Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
