Siberia

Backstreet Boys

When you come back I won't be here
She said and gently pulled me near
If you want to talk you can call
And no it's not your faultI just smiled and said let go of me
But there's something that I've just gotta know
Did someone else steal my part?
She said it's not my faultThen my heart did time in Siberia
Was waiting for the lie to come true
'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious
When the one you want doesn't want you tooI was drifted in between
Like I was on the outside looking in, yeah yeah
In my dreams you are still here
Like you've always been

Like you've always been
Oh yeah, my heart did time in Siberia
Was waiting for the lie to come true
'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious

When the one you want doesn't want you tool gave myself away completely

But you just couldn't see me
Though I was sleeping in your bed
'Cause someone else was on your mind
In your headWhen I came back she wasn't there
Just a note left on the stairs

If you want to talk give me a callMy heart did time in Siberia

Was waiting for the lie to come true
'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious
When the one you want doesn't want you too
When the one that you want doesn't want you

My heart did time in Siberia

My heart did time in Siberia
Was waiting for the lie to come true
'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious

When the one you want doesn't want you tooSiberia, Siberia
When the one you want doesn't want you too
