Blame (feat. John Newman)

Calvin Harris

Can't be sleeping, keep on waking
Without the woman next to me
Guilt is burning, inside I'm hurting
This ain't a feeling I can keepSo blame it on the night
Don't blame it on me, don't blame it on me

Blame it on the night

Don't blame it on me, don't blame it on meBlame it on the night

Don't blame it on me, don't blame it on me

So blame it on the night

Don't blame it on me, don't blame it on meDon't blame it on meCan't you see it?

I was manipulated by it To let her through the door I had no choice in this

I was a friend she missed

She needed me to talkSo blame it on the night

Don't blame it on me, don't blame it on me

Blame it on the night

Don't blame it on me, don't blame it on meBlame it on the night

Don't blame it on me, don't blame it on me

So blame it on the night

Don't blame it on me, don't blame it on meOh, I'm so sorry, so sorry, baby

Yeah

Ooh, I got to say

So sorry

Oh, I promise

(I'll be better this time, I will be better this time)

Don't blame it on me

Don't blame it on me
