

Mask Maker

Liars

Take my pants off,
Use my socks,
Smell my socks,
Eat my face off x2
Take my face,
Get me your face
Gimme your face
Touch my face off
I like your face x3
Touch my face off
I like your face x3
Eat my face off
Touch my face off
Get me your face
I like your face
Take it off
I'm sure you wouldn't do
I'm sure not the man to keep in mind
I should treat you like you would
You would keep me more away, I be loud
Really beat stuff
Well I thought I'd live without Can't get enough of
Well, I clanged my secret, swallowed indifference
And we both have reasons to feel, I feel you alive
Well, it looks so beautiful, you realize it's fucking me up
Well, you don't understand that you're not the kind of keeping my heart
I know I can't wait any more, still chasing you out
Well, you don't understand that you're not the kind of keeping my heart
