

For The Last Time

Vince Gill

(Vince Gill - Steve Diamond) One look, one kiss, just a few words
Showed me such kindness
Your eyes really see me not for what I've been
But for who I am and what I could be. How did you know I was waiting?
How did you know you were saving me?
Oh, what a gift to leave it all behind
Lonely has known me for the last time.
--- Instrumental --- This love is forever
It won't be taken for granted, not ever. How did you know I was waiting?
How did you know you were saving me?
Oh, what a gift to leave it all behind
Lonely has known me for the last time.
How did you know I was waiting?
How did you know you were saving me?
Oh, what a gift to leave it all behind
Lonely has known me for the last time. Lonely has known me for the last time...
