

LaLaLa

Black Coffee & Usher

I can feel it overflowing
Ain't no limits, just keep going
I can't control
what I'm feeling
Too deep in it, any minute Wanna take you places that no one can find Put my lips on you just to read your mind
Let me take you all the way now
Let me take you all the way down like this
Ooh ooh
Can I invade spaces that no one would try
Put your hips on me just to likkle whine
Can we take it all the way now
Can I take you all the way down
Ooh ooh You give me reason
You give me reason to light up the place
You keep me going
Keep me rolling, go without the brakes
Bring back your love again
Bring back your love again
I'm in again
You got me open
Who got you frozen, don't know what to say
You got the motion
You keep me flowing, let me ride the wave
Into the morning
Until the daylight
Do it again oh
Do it again oh LaLa LaLa LaLa LaLaLa
LaLa LaLa LaLa LaLaLa
LaLa LaLa LaLa LaLaLaI can show you things that would blow your mind
Gonna live for now, leave the past behind Ooh your touch is like a drug
Let's make up around the love that we missed Can I invade spaces that no one would try
Put your hips on me just to read your signs
Can we take it all the way now
like this
Ooh ooh You give me reason

You give me reason to light up the place
You keep me going
Keep me rolling, go without the brakes
Bring back your love again
Bring back your love again
I'm in again
yahh yahh
You got the motion
You keep me flowing, let me ride the wave
Into the morning
Until the daylight
LaLa LaLa LaLa LaLaLaLaLa LaLa LaLa LaLaLa
Will it be different than before?
Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
