Butterfly Effect (Espai Mix)

Lamb

Come and shine your light upon me honey bee And we'll take a trip to hell exponentially And all the world will know And all the world will knowThere is something in your eyes I know is mine And knowing such a thing goes up and down my spine And all the world will knowLa la Like some elemental thing the universe my mind Like some elemental thing the universe desires And all the world will know The world will know The world will know
