Hard Way Home

Brandi Carlile

Oooh I sometimes lose my faith in luck I don't know what I want to be when I grow up I just count the rain Wearing the floor through the boards again I wish I could find a soul to steal I could be the engine, you could be the wheel When we're driving home, I never have to worry about being aloneOooh, follow my tracks See all the times I should have turned back Oooh, I wept alone I know what it means to be on my own Oooh, the things I have known Looks like I'm taking the hard way home Oooh, the seeds I've sown Taking the hard way home Taking the hard way home I never did learn how to follow the rules I never was good at sleeping while the moon was full I just lie and burn Wreck my mind while the planet turns I sometimes wish I could start again I'd try and do the right things every now and then I'd step in line That's what I would do if I could turn back timeOooh, follow my tracks See all the times I should have turned back Oooh, I wept alone I know what it means to be on my own Oooh, the things I have known Looks like I'm taking the hard way home Oooh, the seeds I've sown Taking the hard way home Taking the hard way home OoooooooooolI tell you how I want to live Forget about the take Forget about the give I want to leave this town Fake my death and never be foundOooh, follow my tracks See all the times I should have turned back Oooh, I wept alone I know what it means to be on my own Oooh, the things I have known Looks like I'm taking the hard way home
