Put your hands up once we turn up the bass hey!hey! hey! hey! hey! oh! hey! I get up with my mind Set to stay on the grind Everything will be mine, including you, hmmm Got my eyes on the prize Gonna make you realizeMy goal is the sky, it's what I'll do Oh, I said that I would show Everybody what they should already knowI grew up, stood up, and now I'm ready to go Ready, set, go I'm ready to go Ready, set, go I'm ready to go go go I'm ready to go go goPut your hands up once we turn up the bass! Hev! Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey! Oh! Hey! Said I can't deny I often lie This world is all mine, but I'll share with you I'll stay on this star And ride as far as I can And I'll never fall Watch me soar I said that I would show Everybody what they should already know I grew up, stood up, and now I'm ready to go Ready, set, go I'm ready to go Ready, set, go I'm ready to go go go I'm ready to go go go Put your hands up once we turn up the bass!
