Perfect Disaster

A1

Some of us were born to break The slightest knock is all it takes I'm sleeping while I'm wide awake, woah I've tried to thicken up my skin I'm having trouble fitting in I'd rather sink than never swim, woah Now all my life I have learned It's me just me against the world Now the world's moving faster This could be a disaster Is the change that I'm making Worth the risk that I'm taking Now the world's moving faster This could be ever after Is chaos creating The Perfect Disaster Everytime I talk I choke I hide behind the songs I wrote It's killing me with every note, woah Will all my fears be confirmed Is it me just me against the world Now the world's moving faster This could be a disaster Is the change that I'm making Worth the risk that I'm taking Now the world's moving faster This could be ever after Is chaos creating The Perfect Disaster As far as I am concerned It's now you and me against the world Now the world's moving faster This could be a disaster Is the change that I'm making Worth the risk that I'm taking Now the world's moving faster This could be ever after Is chaos creating The Perfect Disaster
