

James Brown

Cabaret Voltaire

Everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. Everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. When it comes, it falls in pieces.
Eating holes and gems unbound.
Birds and hearts and flags and everything. Said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. Said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. Money matters. Does mercy matter?
Suddenly, as things are clearer,
See the sights are getting nearer.
Said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. Said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. Money matters. Does mercy matter?
Suddenly, as things are clearer,
See the sights are getting nearer. Said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. Said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. Money matters. Does mercy matter?
Suddenly, as things are clearer,
See the sights are getting nearer. Everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power.
I said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. When it comes, it falls in pieces.
Eating holes and gems unbound.
Birds and hearts and flags and bugs. Said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power. Said, everything. Devoured.
I learn to hold my, will power.
