

Downtown Venus

P.M. Dawn

I'm Downtown Venus
And I'm trying to be by myself, myself
Habitual dreamers
And no one dreams enough to get me home I'm Downtown Venus
And they're trying to divine my self, my self
And they keep saying you could be into you
But you don't know what you're like Yeah, you would be into you
But you don't know what you're like
You're like
I'm Downtown Venus
And it's alright to kiss my life, my life
I got misdemeanors
Mounting up for sleeping on the nows I'm Downtown Venus
And I can't get behind my worth, my worth
But they keep saying You could be into you
But you don't know what you're like Yeah, you would be into you
But you don't know what you're like
You're like, what you're like I'm Downtown Venus
Where simplicity is always hurt, always hurt
I can't stop screamin'
'Cause I'm failing to entertain all of my self
I'm Downtown Venus
And I constantly remind myself, my self
By saying I could be into me
But I don't know what I'm like Yeah, I could be into me
But I don't know what I'm like
I'm like, I'm like
