

Faint Resemblance

Rise Against

Wait! I'm not listening to you now
I wasn't listening to you then
I know that nothing
Will be the same again There's only so much I can handle
Only so much I can take
Before my knees start to buckle
And my arms start to shake
And have we been here before?
Will we be here again?
I don't know how much of me you expect Standing here right now I beg for you to let go
I dread the day you finally do
I fight for your attention
Too little too late or too much too soon And how will this plague the time
We share from here on out
And how long will this taint
All these words spilling from my mouth? And have we been here before?
Will we be here again?
I don't know how much more of me you expect
Standing here right now
Standing here right now
I'm standing! And have we been here before?
Will we be here again?
I don't know how much more of me you expect
