

There Goes My Everything

Kane Brown

Everything
Everything
Evetything
Everything
Everything
Evetything
Everything
Everything
EvetythingI watch her every morning
Putting on her make up
That girl comes without a warning
So addicting, I can't get enough
She gets dressed for work, grabs her keys and she leaves
Yeah that goodbye kiss kills me
There goes my everything
My everything
My all, my love for sure
She's everything I wanna need
And this is even more
When I see her face I can't help but think
There goes my everythingEverything
Everything
Evetything
Everything
Everything
Evetything
Every time we're in a party
I still watch her from across the room
I ain't notice everybody
They can't even help but watch her too
Dressed her for dressed down
And she can't help but shine
I can't believe she's mineThere goes my everything
My everything
My all, my love for sure
She's everything I wanna need
And this is even more
When I see her face I can't help but think
There goes my everythingThere goes my everythingEverything
Everything
Evetything
Everything

Everything
EvetythingI watch her every morning
Putting on her make upThere goes my everything
My everything
My all, my love for sure
There goes my everythingThere goes my everything
There goes my everything...Everything
Everything
Evetything
Everything
Everything
Evetything
