

Skylights (feat. Rob Goad & Justin Moore)

Mayfly

2 Corinthians 5:17, Romans 8:13, John 8:31-32 Responding to the screaming whispers of my own thoughts

Trying to rationalize against the fear that resides inside But then as the skylight collapses
(Collapses)

The harsh truth burns into our eyes (Into our eyes)
Our minds left bleeding and fragmented (Fragmented)
By minuscule things

We are so distracted Break, tear down the fragile barrier
The last defense of my inward behavior
Hypothetical acidic rain falls

Destroying the shell of my humanity
But then as the skylight collapses (Collapses)
The harsh truth burns into our eyes (Into our eyes)
By minuscule things

We are so distracted So distracted (Distracted)
Oh, God help us all
Break free But then as the skylight collapses (Collapses)
The harsh truth burns into our eyes (Into our eyes)
By minuscule things

We are so distracted Reach for the sky (the sky), Reach for the sky (the sky)
Reach for the sky (the sky), Reach for the sky (the sky)
Reach for the sky (Reaching)
Reach for the sky
I said, reach for sky
I am reaching for the sky
