

What Happened To U

Usher

When you give it all, you get it all
What happened to you, yeah From the beginning
Knew I was getting
But I was with it, and i'll admit that
She was clear there was some kind of pain
It wouldn't be easy for me to let it go
For my time I got money, but money don't buy time
I got ahead some got left behind
The world is yours, just sign that dotted line
And in no time, I had,
Money, clothes, fancy cars
Big old cribs, platinum on the wall, seven grammys
Sold out concerts
Damn, I've been working hard
Private jets to france, many women
I didn't have a ball
You could say I made it
But i'm faded Cause I miss you, can we go back
But the issue this we can get back
What happened to you, yeah, turn back
Cause I miss you, can we go back
What happened to you
Youuuu ooh ohh
Doo doo doo doo
I'm happy for you
Youuuu ooh ohh
Ohh ohh
What happened to you
Did what I wanted, freaked all the honeys
I stayed on their mind, mine was on the money
Had whatever, whenever
Heartthrob forever
Black, young and clever
When you give it all, you get it all
Love would be the only reason to look back
And when you turn it on, you can't turn it off
Heh, but picture me complaining with all this Money, clothes, fancy cars
Big old cribs, platinum on the wall, seven grammys
Sold out concerts damn i've been working hard
Private jets to france, many women
I didn't have a ball
You could say I made it

But I'm faded
(I miss you)Cause I miss you, can we go back
(one too many, one too many girls)
But the issue
Is time we can't get back
(The time we can't get it back, no)
What happened to you, yeah
(what happened to you)
Come back
(oh baby, ohh)
Cause I miss you (you)
Can we go back (heyy)
What happened to you
Youuuu ooh ohh
Youuu
I'm happy for you
Youuuu ooh ohh
Ohh ohh
What happened to you
(Bridge)
What sense does it make to have everything and nothing
At the same time...
Where are you
I need you, yeah
I'm looking for you, girl, come and share all thisMoney, clouds, fancy cars
Big old cribs, platinum on the wall, seven grammys
Sold out concerts damn i've been working hard
Private jets to france, many women
I didn't have a ball
You could say I made it
But i'm fadedCause I miss you, can we go back
(one too many, two at a time)
But the issue (yeah)
Is time we can't get back
(Time we can't get back now)
What happened to you, yeah, come back
What happened to you, yeah (yeah)
Would you come back
(oh baby, yeah)
Cause I miss you
Can we go back (hey)
What happened to you
Youuuu ooh ohh
Youuu
I'm happy for you
Youuuu ooh ohh
(wherever you are ohh)
Things change in time
(wherever you are)

(wherever you are... girl)
(wherever you are)
You're still the same old you
(wherever you are... girl)
(wherever you are)
I miss you
