Illusion

One Direction

Tell me you believe in love
It's not an illusionI been thinking about the nights
And the dangerous tricks
People play on the eyes of the innocent
I can turn a lot of hearts into Breaks with smoke and
Mirrors disappearing
Right in front of themBut believe me
Im not trying to deceive you
I promise falling for me
Wont be a mistake

No baby this is not an illusion
I've really got my heart out on my sleeve
Oh baby this is not an illusion
Theres magic between you and me
No baby this is not an illusion
You really got me lifted off my feet
So tell me you believe in love

Cause its not an illusion to meYou don't ever have to worry about me About how the cards fall

I'm all that you need tonightI would never turn your heart into

Broken parts

You don't have to think twice Looking in my eyes Can't you see it?

I'm not trying to mislead you

I promise falling for me

Wont be a mistakeNo baby this is not an illusion

I've really got my heart out on my sleeve

Oh baby this is not an illusion

Theres magic between you and me

No baby this is not an illusion

You really got me lifted off my feet

So tell me you believe in love

Cause it's not an illusion to meYou can tie me up in chains

You can throw away the key But theres no trapped doors

I'm not gonna leave

You're the truth i can't explain

You're the only one i see

It's not an illusion to meNo baby this is not an illusion I've really got my heart out on my sleeve Oh baby this is not an illusion (This is not an illusion)

Theres magic between you and me

No baby this is not an illusion (Yeah)

You really got me lifted off my feet (Really got me off my feet)

So tell me you believe in love

Cause it's not an illusion to me

(Believe in love)

So tell me you believe in love

Cause it's not an illusion
