Jam

Toad the Wet Sprocket

One more time he says good-night Turns out the door and off the light Cursing low as if she didn't know One more time he'd comfort her As if a word could break through her Shes so quiet and he's sick of itToo long, too late this time Too far, too great in my mindOne more time a run-around Nothing meant by anyone Fine with them, such a quite din Says he wants to leave a while She just sits and tries to smile Thats ok, it was boring anywayToo long, too late this time Too far, too great in my mind Says she needs a worshiper Someone who'll do anything at all for her Wishful thinker He don't need this schizo bull Each one misses by so far They don't see it come, but who ever does... Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/