Just a thought

I understand people have a lot of questions.
Maybe I can rap and give you answers with a message.
A lot of times, what I'm rappin' is offensive,
It ain't serious. I'm sorry if it actually offended.
How does he ever write while he's battlin' depression?
He could end his life in the matter of a second
Would it matter if I end it? Yes,
I want to show a disorder could be a gift, it's just a matter of perspective.
On this planet, there's a fraction of its members,
They're always telling they have to be remembered.
What I have is a profession and my rap is a blessin'.
I don't even have to think all I have to be is present.
Something higher though is tapped into my head.
Don't know what it is, but I'm just having to accept it.
Like I have a spirit into me, channelling energy,
And everything I rap, it's like I haven't really said it
I probably sound like I'm gacking off my head,
I'm clean, it's like that finally I've had an intervention.
I understand that its challenging to get it.
People who misconstrue how I actually have meant it.
For me, this is truth that the galaxy is more than stars and the planets just randomly projected
I'm not saying that it had to be invented,
But there's something much bigger, no man can comprehend it.
I believe in God, but not a man that is ascended,
Standing in the heavens, judging every move you make
And banish you forever if, you're bad then you wont get in.
Me, it's more simple, like it's actually a presence.
Every life, every star, every planet and dimension
Everything is actually connected.
See, there's a God that's ready to come alive in,
Everybody on Earth, all you have to do is let it.
You can be anything you actually invest in.
You can't wait for it though, you have to manifest it.
The law of attraction is tragically presented,
It's the secret, it's really hard to actually defend it.
They made it out like you imagine in a check,
Or a house or a car, then magically you'll get it.
I'm a believer though, I actually digress.
See, it goes a lot deeper though than the cash and the possessions

If you doubt it, look at the placebo effect
That's something that you have to be impressed with It's how the [?].
The tablet did nothing,
But in thinking that he had it was still having him affected.
See every thought you have ever thought,
What you truly believe, and your actual intention,
It matters. There's so much power in your mind,
And as far as God goes, that is practically the essence.
