If we could live in this moment And just hold it Keep my head on your chest I'll never leave this bed The flowers will be blooming The leaves will be turning And snow will be falling While we're making love And the sun will be shining The flowers still are blooming Then leaves will turn again But time will be frozen for us (ha, ha) Time will be frozen for us (ha, ha) Time will be frozen for us Cover the window and come uncover me Let's forget the world even exists Cause nothing compares to this The flowers will be blooming The leaves will be turning And snow will be falling While we're making love And the sun will be shining The flowers still are blooming Then leaves will turn again But time will be frozen for us (ha, ha) Time will be frozen for us (ha, ha) Time will be frozen for us The flowers will be blooming The leaves will be turning And snow will be falling While we're making love And the sun will be shining The flowers still are blooming Then leaves will turn again But time will be frozen for us (ha, ha) Time will be... (ha, ha) Time will be frozen for us Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
