With conviction you must Stand your ground Don't be deceived Strength is salvationIt is so easy to live The life of a followerWe must kill the idols Don't fall prey to seduction With single mindedness We must pursue the truthNevermore the victim Let them say that we Are not of their world With the promise of life We are strong We will carry on Kill the idols No more disillusion Let them say what they will what they will Their answer to our higher calling Is conceived by their hatredNevermore the victim Let them say that we Are not of their worldWith the promise of life We are strong We will carry on With the promise of life We are strong We will carry on Be one, for your conviction Be one for your devotion you will be hated For your dedication you will be hated You will be hatedWith the promise of life We are strong We will carry on
