

Today's Gold

Moss

I don't need this mess
I don't wanna give in
You gotta break out of your shell
So where do we begin? Take a look at me now
Haven't really changed
Take a look at me now
Haven't really changed You gotta raise and destroy
What destroyed you?
You gotta think for yourself
And what matters to you Take a look at me now
Haven't really changed
Take a look at me now
Will I always stay the same?
Don't let it slip through your hands
Just tell me how you fell
You gotta give what you've got
And turn it into something real Take a look at me now
Haven't really changed
Take a look at me now
Will I always stay the same? No, Madison, I need you tonight
Close to reason, I get all things right
And do worries out, and do worries outright Take a look at me now
Haven't really changed
Take a look at me now
Will I always stay the same?
Take a look at me now
Haven't really changed
Take a look at me now
Will I always stay the same?
