

Sin Ti (feat. Nichole)

MC Magic

Ya no quiero llorar
Y no quiero sufrir
Necesito tu amor
Yo me muero sin ti Ya no quiero llorar
Y no quiero sufrir
Necesito tu amor
Yo me muero sin ti

I told you when I met you, that I had someone in my life
I wont tell if you wont tell, is what you said that night
You remember it started as a game,
But when you play with fire, sometimes you cant put out the flame
You said that you're a big girl, understood the circumstances
Never took for granted sneak away romances
Tonight's the last night, I cant go on like this
Gotcha cryin' on my sleeve, tryna beg me not to leave
Por favor no llores, girl I gotta go
Estoy perdiendo tu llanto rompe el Corazon
And if I stay 5 minutes I just might give in
It's a battle I cant win, more than just a sin
Made a promise to myself, plus to someone else
From this day until the end, I gotta be somebody else
Forgive me mama if I'm making you cry,
I never meant to change your life but I gotta say good-bye Ya no quiero llorar
Y no quiero sufrir
Necesito tu amor
Yo me muero sin ti
Ya no quiero llorar
Y no quiero sufrir
Necesito tu amor
Yo me muero sin ti

So many times you make mistakes, lying to the ones we love
I should've seen this coming, but I chose to be the selfish one
My mind is thinking, I'll just see her one more time
No more sneaking away to hotel, telling these lies
But every time we see each other, I cant let go Still my thoughts are saying, you got a good girl at home A good mama to the kids after she's been working all day
Does she deserve to be treated, in the like of this way'.no
But on the other hand, I got you on the phone
Telling me that you cant wait, to have me in your arms
Damn I'm going crazy, losing my mind
I shouldn't see you on the side, but it feels so right

Maybe after tonight we can say good-bye
And I'm thinking to myself, this has got to be the last time
Ya no llores baby girl don't cry,
You deserve somebody better that's gonna love you right Ya no quiero llorar
Y no quiero sufrir
Necesito tu amor
Yo me muero sin ti
